Short on time? But want to get certified.
Then this is for you!

Want to experience diving? Short on time? The Scuba diver rating is designed for those wanting to experience the knowledge and practice in order to maximise their dive experiences on the reef but don't have the time for a four day open water programme. No Doctors' medical is required for this course, simply a medical declaration form.

Set your own days - a typical schedule:

Day 1: A half day each of relaxed Theory at your Hotel followed by a pool session.

Day 2: Two training dives and a fun dive with your instructor on three different sites on Agincourt Ribbon Reefs.

You can upgrade to FULL Open Water with just a further two days training at any stage in the future.

Here's your chance learn to Dive with the personal attention of one of our vastly experienced instructor team - you're assured of a remarkable experience on the Great Barrier Reef, at a relaxed pace. You can also upgrade to a full Open Water Certification at a later date, with any PADI dive centre worldwide.

Just two days and three ocean dives and you're certified to dive worldwide up to 12m with a guide.
